I Corinthians 13 ~ A Christmas Version...

You may have seen this before, but I think it is worth reading again, even if you have. I believe the following speaks for itself, so... take a few moments to read, to be challenged, and to allow God to show you where & how you might display I Corinthians 13 more effectively this season. I know I needed this gentle (or not-so-gentle ☺) reminder today. Blessings... ~Carlee

*If I decorate my house perfectly with plaid bows, strands of twinkling lights and shiny balls,
but do not show love to my family,
I'm just another decorator.*

*If I slave away in the kitchen, baking dozens of Christmas cookies,
preparing gourmet meals
and arranging a beautifully adorned table at mealtime:
but do not show love to my family,
I'm just another cook.*

*If I work at a soup kitchen or in the nursing home,
and give all that I have to charity;
but do not show love to my family,
it profits me nothing.*

*If I trim the spruce with shimmering angels and crocheted snowflakes, attend a myriad of holiday parties and sing in the choir's cantata
but do not focus on Christ, I have missed the point.*

*Love stops the cooking to hug the child.
Love sets aside the decorating to kiss the spouse.
Love is kind, though harried and tired.
Love does not envy another's home that has coordinated Christmas china and table linens.
Love does not yell at the kids to get out of the way, but is thankful they are there to be in the way.
Love does not give only to those who are able to give in return;
but rejoices in giving to those who cannot.*

*Love bears all things,
believes all things,
hopes all things, and
endures all things.
Love never fails.
Video games will break,
pearl necklaces will be lost,
golf clubs will rust;
but giving the gift of love will endure. **
